

Equality Statement

Parkour UK is fully committed to equality of opportunity and strives to ensure that anyone participating in Parkour / Freerunning is able to do so in a discrimination-free environment.

Parkour UK is committed to ensure that everyone is treated equally regardless of gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, race, ethnicity or socio/economic background.

Parkour UK is working towards the foundation level of the UK Equality Standard for Sport and is aiming to achieve this by Summer 2010.
